SECTION XX. Paragraph (2) of subsection (i) of section 14 of said chapter 151A is hereby repealed.

SECTION XX. Paragraph (a) of Section 24 of said chapter 151A is hereby amended by striking out in its entirety said paragraph and inserting in place thereof a new paragraph:

‘(a) Have been paid wages in the base period amounting to at least forty times the weekly benefit rate; provided, however, that for the period beginning on January first, nineteen hundred and ninety-five the individual has been paid wages in at least two quarters of the base period amounting to at least thirty times the weekly benefit rate; provided, further, that said amount shall be increased annually proportionately, rounding to the nearest one hundred dollars, to any increases which have occurred during the prior calendar year in the minimum wage as set forth in section one of chapter one hundred and fifty-one; and, provided further, that any such increase shall be effective beginning on the first Sunday in January.’

SECTION XX. Section 30 of said chapter 151A is hereby amended by striking out subsection (a) in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the following:-

‘(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), the total benefits which an unemployed individual may receive during his benefit year shall be an amount equal to thirty-six percent of his wages in the base period, or an amount equal to thirty times his benefit rate, whichever is less, plus dependency benefits payable under section 29; provided, that if in any month the average state-wide unemployment rate for the prior 6 months, as determined by the United States Department of Labor, is equal to or below 5.1 percent, the total benefits which an unemployed individual who then files a claim may receive during his benefit year shall be an amount equal to 36 per cent of his wages in the base period or an amount equal to 26 times his benefit rate, whichever is less, plus dependency benefits payable under said section 29. If such amount includes a fractional part of a dollar, it shall be rounded to the next lower full dollar amount.”’.

SECTION XX. Said section 30 of chapter 151A is hereby amended by adding the following:-

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), in any period that is not an extended benefit period as defined by section 30A, an individual’s rights to receive regular benefits under this chapter for any week in excess of 26 times the individual’s weekly benefit amount, plus dependency benefits payable under section 29, shall be dependent on the individual’s participation in an unpaid internship program approved by the commissioner. For each week in excess of said time, up to 30 weeks, in order to receive the corresponding benefits for that week the individual shall complete a week in such program. Approved participation in such program shall not result in a decrease in an individual’s regular benefits.

SECTION XX. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the commissioner, as defined in section 1 of chapter 151A, shall establish a program through which in-state employers may offer unpaid internships to individuals receiving state unemployment benefits and an approval process for the inclusion of any business in such program. The purpose of this program shall be to maximize opportunities for worker training and establish connections between businesses and the state workforce.
